To: Carol Richards

Date: December 12, 2014 21:05

Subject: Thanks

.....
Hi Carol,

I had a good time at your house today. Please say thank you to your mother. Her chocolate cake was really good! By the way, I forgot my handkerchief at your house. It's white and red. Please look for it in the kitchen. Can you bring it to school on Monday? My friend gave it to me for my birthday last month, so it's special.

Have a good weekend,

Lucy

(五) 次の英文を読んで、1～5の間に答えなさい。

Ken and his father were talking at dinner. Ken said, "I want a new bike. My friend Akira has a very good one." His father said, "No, you don't need a new bike. Your bike is not too old yet." Ken knew that (A) his father was right. But he wanted a new bike like Akira's.

After dinner when Ken was watching TV, he saw a very shocking program. He thought about it for some time. Then he decided to talk about it at the English speech contest which his school was going to have (B) next ①. He began to get ready for the speech. Ken practiced so hard that in a week he was able to speak well.

The speech contest started. Ken's turn came.

"When I was watching TV one evening, I saw very unhappy people in a foreign country. I saw many people who were sick and dying. People are very, very poor in that country. Many of them have no food, no homes, or other things to survive. Many children die every day. They die because they have no food."

"Now I'd like to look at our lives. We enjoy good lives. We have many things that the people in that country do not have. So, we should think about our lives. We often buy things we do not really need. Sometimes we even throw away food which we can still eat." Ken went on. At the end of his speech he said, "We should know there are (C) a lot ② unhappy people in some parts of the world. (D) What can we do? I hope all of you will think about their lives."

Ken's speech was the best at the contest.

That night Ken was talking to his father about his speech. His father was listening to him with a smile. Ken said, "Father, I have learned many things since I saw the poor people on TV. I wanted a new bike. But I do not want one now. I already have mine and it is good enough."
