(四) 次の英文は、中学生の正雄 (Masao) が書いたものである。これを読んで 1~7 の問いに答えなさい。

I like playing video games very much. When I have free time, I often play video games for hours. My father also plays video games with me, but he cannot play them very well. So I often show him how (①) play them. He usually plays them only for about half an hour.

It was a Saturday morning. When I was (②) a video game, my father came into the living room. He had a paper bag in his hand. He gave it to me. I opened it and found a book in it. It was Kimionawa, a famous book (③) by Shinkai Makoto*. This book was very popular in Japan. My father asked, (A) “[ever / you / read / it / have] ?” I answered, “No, I haven’t.” He said, “I read many books when I was young. Reading books is good for you. Playing video games is interesting, but reading books is also interesting!”

I didn’t like reading books very much, but when I read the first page of the book which my father gave me, I thought, “This book may be (B) .” Then I remembered the word which our junior high school teacher said. She often said to us, “Reading many books makes your *mind *rich.” I went back to my room, and began to read “Kimionawa”. (④) a while, it became more and more interesting. I couldn’t stop reading it and almost forgot to have lunch. As soon as lunch was *over, I began to read it again.

Around four o’clock, my father came into my room and said, “*Why don’t you stop reading and *go out with me?” I wanted to continue reading, but I was a little tired. So I said, “Yes. I need some *rest.”

My father and I walked to the park. We talked a lot there. My father asked, “Do you like the book which I gave you, Masao?” I answered, “Yes, I do.” He said with a smile, “I’m very happy to hear (C) that.” I asked, “ (D) ?” My father answered, “Sure. Then I’ll buy another one for you when you finish reading that book.” I said, “Yes, thank you.

(E) Reading books is more interesting than playing video games now.”

(注) living room : 居間 Kimionawa : 君の名は (小説のタイトル)

Shinkai Makoto* : 新海誠 (作家名) *mind : 心 *rich : 豊かな *over : 終わって

*Why don’t you~ : ~しませんか *go out : 外出する *rest : 休憩
