A few days before Christmas, my little brother Tom, said to our father, “This year I want to meet *Santa. I want to say to him, ‘Thank you for giving me nice presents every year.’ How can I meet him?” My father did not know (①) to say. Then Tom said, “Oh, (A) I have a good idea! I’m going to write a letter to Santa. I’ll write, ‘Please come to my house before I go to bed on *Christmas Eve...’” He wrote his message to Santa on a piece of paper and put it in the *mailbox near our house. We thought that we should stop him, but we couldn’t.

(B) On Christmas Eve, we [my mother / that / had / a good dinner / cooked]. After dinner we sang Christmas songs and had a good time. At nine o’clock my mother said to Tom, “It’s time to go to bed. I hope that you’ll find a wonderful present tomorrow morning.” He said, “Oh, no, mom. I can’t go to bed before Santa comes.” “Santa is (②) because he must visit many children tonight,” she said.

Just then there was a *knock on the door. Tom shouted, “Santa has come!” and he ran to the door. My father and I went after him. When my father opened the door, we were surprised. Do you know (③) was there? Santa was standing there! “ (C) ! Thank you for your letter. (D) I’m sorry to be late,” said Santa. “Oh, Santa, I’m very happy to meet you. Thank you very much for giving me nice presents every year,” said Tom. “ (E) . You’re a good boy, so I’ll give you a present this year, too. (F) ,” said Santa. “Oh, thank you,” said Tom. “Always be a good boy, Tom. (G) ,” Santa said and (④).

When Tom opened the present, he found a letter in it. It was to our parents. My father read it and smiled. Later I heard from him that Santa was a *mailman! The mailman found Tom’s letter in the mailbox near our house. He read it and wanted to do something for Tom. So he came to our house as Santa after he finished his work that night.

I think that it was the most wonderful Christmas Eve for Tom. It was very cold that day, but our heart became warm. I also want to do something that will give dreams to little children.

(注) *Santa : サンタクロース *Christmas Eve : クリスマスイブ

*mailbox : 郵便ポスト *knock : ノック(の音) *mailman : 郵便集配人
